Annual Junior Fellow Research Day

GUIDELINES FOR THE PREPARATION AND PRESENTATION OF RESIDENT/FELLOW PAPERS

1. The first author must be an ACOG Junior Fellow or have an application for Junior Fellow membership in process.
2. The work must be original and done by the first author.
3. The paper may have been presented earlier at a local, state, regional or national meeting. Previously published papers cannot be considered.
4. All submitted abstracts must be in final form and in Green Journal format (see your Program Director for Obstetrics and Gynecology publication guidelines). Failure to follow these guidelines may result in rejection.
5. The abstract must be received by the specified date in order to be considered for presentation. The abstract form provided must be used and its contents must fit within the indicated space using a font size no smaller than 12.
6. Authors of abstracts selected for presentation will be notified by Friday, April 14, 2006.
7. The first author should plan on presenting the paper.
8. At the time of presentation, slides of the illustrations, graphs and charts may be presented to enhance the clarity of the presentation.
9. In determining the award winners, the final score will be based on the presentation.
10. All abstracts submitted for the MSACOG Junior Fellow Research Day may also be submitted for the District V ACOG Annual District Meeting Junior Fellow Scientific Program, regardless of their acceptance or not for presentation at this meeting. Award-winning authors will be encouraged to submit their papers for the District V competition.
