

Time Room Author Judge
Title

Scoring Key

- (5) Excellent Excellent in every way. Equal in quality to nationally presented and published papers.
- (3) Good Satisfactory. Would need additional work to be presented at state or regional meetings.
- (1) Marginal Meets minimum expectations. Would need considerable additional work to correct deficiencies.

Introduction

1. The significant and unique aspects of the case are justified by literature. 1 2 3 4 5

Check all that apply

- Thorough literature review
- Clear statement of the case

Other: _____

Methods/Patient Description

2. Information relevant to the description of the case is provided. 1 2 3 4 5

Check all that apply

- Patient characteristics are described
- Diagnostic information is included

Other: _____

Results

3. Information is presented in clear, easy-to-follow manner. 1 2 3 4 5

Check all that apply

- Patient outcomes are clearly presented
- Basis and description of intervention is provided
- Final diagnosis/outcome of treatment is provided

Other: _____

Discussion and Conclusions

4. An interpretation of the findings and the major contribution of this case are presented clearly. 1 2 3 4 5

Check all that apply

- Unusual findings are discussed
- Importance of the findings are discussed
- If not unique, differences/similarities to previous cases are discussed
- Conclusion is clearly stated

Other: _____

Presentation Skills

Check all that apply

- Author was knowledgeable of subject matter presented
- Author communicated clearly
- Presented appropriate amount of material for time allotted
- Good eye contact with audience
- Visual materials are concise, well-organized and appropriate

Other: _____